

WHAT IS FAMILY TIME?

The course aims to empower parents to move from simply surviving family life. Family Time is based on Christian principles, and aims to equip and envision every parent, whether Christian or not, to deal with the many issues they come up against.

Session 1: A vision for the family
(Jan 25th)

Session 2: Communicating love
(Feb 1st)

Session 3: Who is influencing my children? (Feb 8th)

half term

Session 4: Family Values (Feb 22nd)

Session 5: Guiding, shaping, boundaries (Feb 29th)

Session 6: Modelling love and respect (March 7th)

We ask for a donation of £12 per couple to cover the cost of the course.

WHO IS IT FOR?

It is for parents who are either just starting out and looking for direction as to how to begin or those parents who are seeking fresh input into their parenting. All types of parents are encouraged to join us; single parents, couples with children, those about to become parents, grandparents. This is an opportunity for you to think about family life in an open and friendly environment.

A TYPICAL EVENING

We begin at 8pm with a talk which will be followed by refreshments and then discussion groups. The evening will finish at 10pm.

Hope you can make it!

PEOPLE'S EXPERIENCE OF THE COURSE WE RAN
LAST YEAR

"The Parenting Course is a fantastic, relaxed, informal environment where you can meet other parents like yourself and discuss different issues. We both really enjoyed it and came away with lots of useful tips and a great bunch of new friends"
Anna & Martin

"Parenting is one of the biggest responsibilities we have and so to have time to stop and think and discuss issues around it was really valuable."
Anna & Tim

"I met some lovely people on the course, many of whom I am still in contact with now. The course offered some very useful, practical tips on parenting, but also allowed me to consider the kind of parent I want to be."
Joanne
